A PUBLICATION OF THE BRONX COUNTY DENTAL SOCIETY

Live Meetings are Back!

AFTER A YEAR AND A HALF OF ISOLATION AND Zoom gatherings, dental meetings are back. For most of us vaccinated dentists, this has been a welcome reemergence. The BCDS has had two well attended evenings at Maestros Caterers this fall. Our delegates attended the New York State House of Delegates in Jersey City this past August and Dr. Jacqueline Samuels represented the Bronx at the ADA meeting in Las Vegas this October. Even though what happens in Vegas, stays in Vegas, Jacqueline has offered to share some thoughts on the meeting and her commitment to organized dentistry.

From October 13-17, I represented the Bronx County Dental Society as an ADA Delegate in Las Vegas. Throughout the conference, I was asked by other ADA members why I got involved in organized dentistry. I responded that I didn't have a choice. I didn't have a family member in the dental profession. I had no mentor. I felt that being an ADA member would provide me with the resources I needed to be successful in dentistry.

As a delegate, I help to give a voice to my profession, mentor, and provide resources to other dentists. As a delegate, I get the opportunity to work alongside other dental advocates to help sustain my profession. This was the most evident during Covid. If it wasn't for advocacy and organized dentistry our profession would not have been considered essential. The skills and services that we provide would be undervalued and underrepresented. I am delighted that I was given the opportunity to represent the voices of the Bronx as an ADA Delegate.

Governor Hochul Activates HERO Act

IN A PRESS RELEASE ISSUED ON SEPT. 6, Governor Kathy Hochul announced that the commissioner of health has designated COVID-19 a highly contagious communicable disease that presents a serious risk of harm to the public health under New York Health and Essential Rights Act (HERO Act), which requires all employers to implement workplace safety plans in the event of an airborne infectious disease, helping to prevent workplace infections.

The NY HERO Act mandates extensive new workplace health and safety protections in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. Under the law, all employers are required to adopt a workplace safety plan, and implement it for all airborne infectious diseases designated by the New York State Department of Health. Employers can adopt a model safety plan as crafted by the New York State Department of Labor (NYSOL), or develop their own safety plan in compliance with HERO Act standards. Read the full press release. Plans adopted by employers must address a number of safety measures. Many protocols that dentistry currently follows under the Interim Guidance for Dentistry during the Covid-19 Public Health Emergency may be transferable to meet the Department of Labor standard.

Employers are required to distribute their work safety plan to all employees and post it in a visible and prominent location within each worksite. Additionally, the HERO Act includes anti-retaliation protection for employees. For more information on the NY HERO Act, visit: <https://dol.ny.gov/ny-hero-act>.

NO ONE KNOWS NEW YORK DENTISTS BETTER THAN MLMIC

Whether you are a new dentist or an established practitioner, choosing a professional liability carrier is a crucial decision for your practice. Have you ever wondered what makes one carrier stand apart from another? What exactly should you be looking for when making this important decision?

The strength and stability of your professional liability carrier should be one of your first considerations. MLMIC Insurance Company is not only an admitted carrier in New York State, but is now a member of the Berkshire Hathaway family, which further enhances our financial strength. A.M. Best has recently assigned MLMIC Insurance Company a Financial Strength Rating of A+ (superior). This A+ Rating is a testament to MLMIC's stability and unwavering commitment to securing the future of dentists throughout New York State.

In addition to strength and stability, you will also want to look at coverage options and value-added services. MLMIC dentist professional liability policies all come with built-in coverage and benefits including:

- 1 Legal Defense Cost coverage up to $25,000 for administrative actions and/or Medicare/Medicaid and/or abuse proceedings
- 2 Contractual liability coverage

- 3 Shared limits coverage for Qualified Professional Entities
- 4 Access to our 24/7 Legal Hotline

In addition to the above, MLMIC also waives the cost for tail coverage (Automatic Extended Reporting Endorsement) for qualified Claims Made policyholders on their retirement from the practice of dentistry, and offers some of the most competitive premiums in the state. Both Claims Made and Occurrence policy options are available, as well as an array of liability limits. Whatever your coverage needs, MLMIC has options for you and your practice.

Finally, customer service is another area to investigate while making this decision. MLMIC prides itself on concierge-level service. Whether you have a question regarding coverage, are reporting a claim, or need risk management support, MLMIC is here for you. With over forty-five years of New York-specific experience, MLMIC is New York's #1 dental liability insurer. There is no better way to protect your practice than choosing a carrier located in your "own backyard"!

Who Knew?

IN THE PAST TWO INSTALLMENTS OF THIS WIDELY ACCLAIMED and much anticipated column we revealed two famous people who became dentists. In this issue we will discover an aspiring young pre-dental student who decided to follow a different career path.

Long before there was Michael Phelps, there was the worlds fastest swimmer, Mark Spitz. Spitz is best known for winning 7 gold medals, each in world record time, at the 1972 Munich Olympics. What is less known is that while he was working hard in the pool, he was working equally hard on his pre-dental studies at Indiana University, "I always wanted to be a dentist, from the time I was in high school, and I was accepted to dental school in the spring of 1972," Spitz told Time magazine in 2011. "I was planning to go, but after the Olympics there were other opportunities. I did some television and speaking engagements and things just went from there."

Spitz never did trade in his gold medals for gold crowns. He never voiced the words, "rinse and spit please." Would you have done differently if you were in his Speedo? ■

Self-Care Away from the Dental Chair

IN A RECENT SURVEY BY THE NATIONAL

Institute of Mental Health, 1 in 5 adults in America experience mental illness and those in the dental community are no exception. In fact, according to a 2020 ADA study, 92% of dentists agreed that COVID-19 challenged their mental health. Yet, many dentists indicated they're not comfortable seeking out mental health resources for themselves or a colleague.

The ADA is seeking to change this, in part, through collaborations with mental health advocates NAMI Chicago and Hope for the Day, made possible by a grant from Crest + Oral-B. The goal is to help create an environment of wellness within our dental community and avoid reaching a point of crisis before addressing mental health.

Here are a few resources that may help yourself or someone you know:

Above all, talk about mental health with your colleagues and make sure you're taking steps to take care of yourself. Because mental health is part of overall health.

Reducing Drug Overdoses

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Secretary Health and Human Services Secretary Xavier Becerra outlined the Biden administration's strategy for curbing drug overdoses recently, committing more federal support for harm reduction techniques such as distribution of clean syringes and test strips used to check street drugs for hidden fentanyl. This four-part strategy also includes measures to prevent drug addiction, in part by continuing to reduce the inappropriate prescribing of opioids; expand medication-based treatment, which research has shown to be the most effective approach, and improve support for people recovering from substance use disorder. This strategy comes as HHS released a report finding more than 840,000 people died from drug overdoses in the U.S. between 1999 and 2019, including about 93,000 last year during the COVID-19 pandemic when overdose fatalities rose dramatically. HHS labels confronting these overdose deaths as 'a top priority' for the department.

There are several likely reasons for the recent increase in overdose deaths. The pandemic has led to isolation and depression for many. The lacing of common drugs with fentanyl, no doubt is a major factor in the increased death rate.

Substance abuse and addiction are problems that we as dentists suffer from at an increasing rate. The New York State Dental Association (NYSDA) is committed to aiding our colleagues in addressing substance abuse, addiction, and related mental health issues. NYSDA's Committee on Substance Abuse and Well-Being provides a statewide network of dentist-peers who are available to assist our members, their families, and dental office staff in addressing problems with drugs or alcohol. The Committee includes dentists who have experienced both the devastation of addiction and the effectiveness of intervention and treatment in their own lives.

Website Compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act

Since the implementation of the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”) in 1990, numerous lawsuits have been initiated alleging disability discrimination in “places of public accommodation.” Recently, the number of ADA lawsuits has skyrocketed with claims that a business website is inaccessible to users who are visually or hearing-impaired or have limited English proficiency. It has been determined that websites fall under the definition of places of public accommodation.

The healthcare sector has been heavily targeted for ADA violations due to noncompliant websites, resulting in significant monetary implications and compliance costs relative to injunctive relief, as well as awards for attorneys’ fees. Therefore, it is essential that providers assess their website for ADA conformity and implement modifications, if necessary, to minimize the potential for litigation and liability.

Healthcare providers, in conjunction with knowledgeable web designers, should make every effort to evaluate websites for ADA compliance. All measures should be taken to ascertain whether a website is accessible by all individuals, including those who have visual, auditory, or physical disabilities, or limited English proficiency. However, there are no clear ADA regulations that govern compliant web content. Courts have often cited the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (“WCAG”) to determine whether a website complies with ADA mandates. These guidelines are a very useful technical reference that focus on whether content is perceivable, operable, comprehensible, and robust.

To assist in determining uniform accessibility by all potential users, evaluation of content should include, but not be limited to, focusing on the overall appearance of the site, the availability of closed captioning for all video content, the ability of users to follow and control content, and the inclusion of content in several languages. In general, assessment of a website should address whether it provides effective communication and whether the site can be successfully navigated by prospective users.

Although ADA website compliance can be quite challenging, signs of good faith efforts to accommodate all possible web users will be helpful when faced with disability discrimination lawsuits. ADA litigation that targets websites can result in costly outcomes, and therefore, a proactive approach toward enhanced accessibility is strongly encouraged.
